ST. MARYS LODGE #109, F&AM recently held their annual family night dinner. DDGM Byrd, left, presented a 25 year pin to Brother Chapman, right, in honor of his service to the Fraternity.

Jake Chapman Honored By St. Marys Lodge

Brother Jake Chapman was the guest of honor at a family night dinner and regular communication of St. Marys Lodge #109, F&AM, on the evening of July 21. After an enjoyable meal prepared by the members of the Lodge and their wives, Worshipful Master Joe Wirth opened the Lodge.

Following a short business meeting, he called the Lodge to refreshment.

At that time, the wives, families, and the Fellowcraft and Entered Apprentice Masons present were invited into the Lodge for an interesting and enlightening talk by District Deputy to the Grand Master of all Masons in Georgia, William Byrd. Brother Byrd discussed the educational aspect of Freemasonry and the background of the Craft.

Following this special presentation, DDGM Byrd and WM Wirth presented a 25-year pin to Brother Chapman in honor of his service to the Fraternity. Brother Chapman was awarded with a touching love and appreciation.

and his hope to serve the Fraternity for many years to come.

The 34 people in attendance included one Entered Apprentice; one Fellowcraft; wives, families and friends; brothers; Masons from other Lodges; and three of the 11th Masonic District. Worshipful Master Joe Chapman, Chaplain Troy Wise, and Chock Perry.
